

REMARKS

This amendment is being filed in an effort to overcome the § 112 matters raised by the examiner. Particularly with respect to claim 14, the word said has been inserted before shelving, and the word said has been inserted before vertical rods, in line 11. In line 12, rods have been set forth in the plural. With regard to the lack of antecedent basis, line 5 identifies at least one shelving. With regard to vertical rods, line 10 identifies spaced vertical rods in the end frames. It is believed that the amendments made correct what ever problem may have existed.

Respectfully submitted,

A large, stylized handwritten signature in black ink, appearing to read 'Paul M. Denk', is written over the typed name and address.
